

These past couple of weeks have been about sprinkling kindness around. The children have created some colourful jars and handed them to some of the teachers that they appreciate. This is going to be an ongoing project for us at OSHC (outside school hours care). We are choosing random letterbox's and dropping off pictures and paintings to put a smile on some faces who might be having a hard time during this lockdown

These past couple of weeks have been about sprinkling kindness around. The children have created some colourful jars and handed them to some of the teachers that they appreciate. This is going to be an ongoing project for us at OSHC (outside school hours care). We are choosing random letterbox's and dropping off pictures and paintings to put a smile on some faces who might be having a hard time during this lockdown

